Note that we J. Lowe ꝛ Mr Lister new marked the roles over ꝛ finde Waltham to be 95. and New Forest is 307 although wee have marked them to be 308 but there is now marked 100; that roll being marked 101 instead of 100.

of the Mint, Mr Lawton, one of the Deputy Chamberlains of his Majestys Exchequer, informed their Lordships, that there was a box kept in one of the Treasury rooms in the Cloysters in Westminster Abby, which was sealed up, and had a labell affixed to it, whereon was wrote as follows viz.

> " The things contained in this Box were formerly in the > " Old Cordoval bag which being rotted they were put > " here in presence of the Right Honorable the Lords of
> " the Privy Council 16: July 1696."

Whereupon their Lordships thought proper to order, that the proper officers should immediately bring the said box before them which being accordingly done, their Lordships directed the said box to be opened in their presence; and there appearing to be several old stamps of coins, dyes, seales, assays, pieces of metal, and other things relating to the coinage, contained therein, their Lordships do therefore hereby order, that the Auditor and Chamberlains of his Majestys Exchequer, or their Deputys, do make a schedule of all the things contained in the said box, and lay the same together with the said box and things contained therein, before their Lordships at the Council Chamber at the Cockpit Whitehall.

And the said Mr Lawton having informed their Lordships, that there are in his custody several stamps of coins, weights and other things relating to the old coinage, which were found when the Gateway at the end of St Margarets Lane was pulled down; their Lordships do therefore hereby further order, that the said Auditor and Chamberlains or their Deputys, do likewise make a schedule of the said stamps of coins ꝛc^a^. and lay the same together with the said stamps ꝛc^a^. before their Lordships, at the same time, they shall lay the schedule and box aforementioned.
